Academic Regulations

The current University of Portsmouth Academic Regulations for Collaborative Partners will apply to this course.

Support for Student Learning

The University of Portsmouth provides a comprehensive range of support services for students throughout their course, details of which are available at the MyPort student portal.

In addition to these University support services this course also provides a course leader (partner contact). There is a course leader in each of colleges and they are responsible for the day-to-day running of the course.

The college induction programme introduces the student to the college, university and the course. The University 3-hour induction programme focuses on expectations, study skills support, on line resources, feedback and opportunities from using the library. Student course and unit handbooks provide information about the course structure and University regulations. Each student has a personal tutor in college responsible for pastoral support and guidance, accompanied by a personal development plan for all awards. A dedicated study support tutor (ASK) in the University has been appointed to help and support students with academic writing, exam techniques, critical thinking and presentation skills.

Evaluation and Enhancement of Standards and Quality in Learning and Teaching

The University of Portsmouth undertakes comprehensive monitoring, review and evaluation of courses within clearly assigned staff responsibilities. Student feedback is a key feature in these evaluations, as represented in our Policy for Listening to and Responding to the Student Voice where you can also find further information.

Disclaimer

The University of Portsmouth has checked the information provided in this Course Specification and will endeavour to deliver this course in keeping with this Course Specification. However, changes to the course may sometimes be required arising from annual monitoring, student feedback, and the review and update of modules and courses.

Where this activity leads to significant changes to modules and courses there will be prior consultation with students and others, wherever possible, and the University of Portsmouth will take all reasonable steps to minimise disruption to students.

It is also possible that the University of Portsmouth may not be able to offer a module or course for reasons outside of its control, for example, due to the absence of a member of staff or low student registration numbers. Where this is the case, the University of Portsmouth will endeavour to inform applicants and students as soon as possible, and where appropriate, will facilitate the transfer of affected students to another suitable course.
