Educational aims of the course

International Trade, Logistics and Business Communication seeks to:

- enable students to acquire a sound knowledge and understanding of international business and logistics
- provide a framework for understanding organisations and interpreting their diverse needs in an international environment
- provide opportunities for specialisation and professional development in import and export, marketing, international management and logistics.

With English as the target language (TL), the programme seeks to engage students in:

- learning all four basic language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking);
- understanding language structures (grammar);
- acquiring vocabulary and idiom;
- developing English language skills to enable them to fully benefit from their subject study;
- an appreciation of Anglophone (or other foreign) culture and linguistic conventions.

The course also seeks to:

- provide students with the opportunity to develop transferable skills
- provide students with the opportunity to develop business communication skills
- provide students with the skills and knowledge required to maximise careers and postgraduate study opportunities in the context of changing labour markets.
- provide a framework allowing students to follow a flexible and coherent programme of study
