This course specification provides a summary of the main features of the course, identifies the aims and learning outcomes of the course, the teaching, learning and assessment methods used by teaching staff, and the reference points used to inform the curriculum.

This information is therefore useful to potential students to help them choose the right course of study, to current students on the course and to staff teaching and administering the course.

Further detailed information on the individual modules within the course may be found in the relevant module descriptors and the Course Handbook provided to students on enrolment.

Please refer to the Course and Module Catalogue for further information on the course structure and modules.

Educational aims of the course

- To provide a coherent course of studies for students who wish to develop a detailed knowledge and understanding of management issues in education and training organisations.
- To meet the developing needs of those holding, or aspiring to hold, senior positions in such organisations.
- To provide a challenging and stimulating experience of study.
- To ensure that the scholarship and professional expertise of staff informs the curriculum.
- To provide students with the skills and knowledge to undertake research and scholarship on specific issues in Educational Leadership and Management and in their own professional practice
- To contribute to the support of students in improving their own professional knowledge and practice.
