This course specification provides a summary of the main features of the course, identifies the aims and learning outcomes of the course, the teaching, learning and assessment methods used by teaching staff, and the reference points used to inform the curriculum.

This information is therefore useful to potential students to help them choose the right course of study, to current students on the course and to staff teaching and administering the course.

Further detailed information on the individual modules within the course may be found in the relevant module descriptors and the Course Handbook provided to students on enrolment.

Please refer to the Course and Module Catalogue for further information on the course structure and modules.

Educational aims of the course

- To develop advanced study in creative writing, by both research-through-practice (creative work) and through the development of critical understanding;
- To offer an opportunity to develop genre-specific projects while also studying the conventions of other creative writing genres, and how they inform the world of creative writing practice and knowledge;
- To provide an opportunity for writers graduating from BA courses in creative writing (or similar), to extend their work/technique/knowledge;
- To develop work that takes into account the context of contemporary practice appropriate to the chosen genre, and to make a case for person- and project- specific approaches, styles, structural understanding and modes of communication through creative writing;
- To develop creative writing research skills with a sense of current national and international practice in this field.
