This course specification provides a summary of the main features of the course, identifies the aims and learning outcomes of the course, the teaching, learning and assessment methods used by teaching staff, and the reference points used to inform the curriculum.

This information is therefore useful to potential students to help them choose the right course of study, to current students on the course and to staff teaching and administering the course.

Further detailed information on the individual modules within the course may be found in the relevant module descriptors and the Course Handbook provided to students on enrolment.

Please refer to the Course and Module Catalogue for further information on the course structure and modules.

Educational aims of the course

- To provide a conversion for those seeking competence in the field of Accounting and Finance, who may not necessarily have a background or training in accounting and who wish to become more effective managers and decision-makers;
- To provide those with a background or training in accounting with a means of building on this through continuing education or continuing professional development;
- To enhance the scholarship of students by equipping them with a range of conceptual and analytical skills which may be applied to the practical problems of business in the private and public sectors;
- To assist in the personal development of students to enable them to improve the contribution they can make to the organisation in which they are, or will be, employed;
- To provide students with a recognised qualification which will improve their career development and promotion prospects.

Changes to your course/modules

The University of Portsmouth has checked the information provided in this Course Specification and will endeavour to deliver this course in keeping with this Course Specification. However, changes to the course may sometimes be required arising from annual monitoring, student feedback, and the review and update of modules and courses.

Where this activity leads to significant changes to modules and courses there will be prior consultation with students and others, wherever possible, and the University of Portsmouth will take all reasonable steps to minimise disruption to students.

It is also possible that the University of Portsmouth may not be able to offer a module or course for reasons outside of its control, for example, due to the absence of a member of staff or low student registration numbers. Where this is the case, the University of Portsmouth will endeavour to inform applicants and students as soon as possible, and where appropriate, will facilitate the transfer of affected students to another suitable course.
