Educational aims of the course

The Programme aims to:

- provide a challenging and stimulating study environment.
- equip graduates with the necessary transferable skills for lifelong learning and flexibility in the context of changing labour markets.
- provide students with the skills and knowledge required to maximise career and postgraduate study opportunities.
- provide an integrated education in International Business that will meet current & future organisational needs.
- enable students to appreciate the role of cultural similarities and differences in the business environment, through: the study of units focussing on international business, the study in an overseas university providing exposure to cultural differences, the workplace placement that provides a framework for understanding organisations and interpreting their diverse relationships in a dynamic and international environment.
- view change and enterprise as constants in business and society and as such their positive handling as an integral part of business learning.
- encourage ongoing critical, evaluative and strategic ways of thinking in all areas.
- recognise the importance of the industry-education relationship and to offer opportunities for learning in other environments.
- provide links and or a platform for the eventual professional development in a wide range of occupations, especially in an international context.
- integrate research undertaken by academic staff into teaching.
